

Scarlett Moffatt

From beloved Gogglebox breakout star, to winner of I'm a Celebrity...Get Me Out of Here!, achieving her dream of presenting with Ant and Dec on Saturday Night Takeaway and filling Davina's shoes in the new series of Streetmate, Scarlett is quickly fast-tracking to national treasure status.

Scarlett's funny one-liners had the I'm A Celebrity audience in stitches, as well as hosts Ant and Dec, as she tackled all the bush tucker trials thrown her way. Fans of the show won't forget her Celebrity Cyclone, Cavern of Claws, and hilarious I'm A Celebrity Big Bush Bake Off with Scary Mary Berry. A worthy winner, Scarlett said in the jungle she would rather win a million laughs, than a million pounds.

Her infectious enthusiasm and down to earth personality has landed her many exciting presenting opportunities in 2017. January saw her take on her first live presenting job alongside Dermot O'Leary, interviewing winners backstage at the NTA's. Followed by presenting live, alongside Ant and Dec for prime time entertainment show Saturday Night Takeaway.

Scarlett can currently be seen presenting Channel 4's dating show Streetmate. Taking to the streets of the UK, she attempts to find hopeful singletons a date without social media or a dating app in sight. Doing two of her favourite things- chatting to randomers and a love story!

2016 saw Scarlett's book, Scarlett Says, top the Sunday Times Number 1 Bestsellers list. She's since been busy working on her second book, Me Life Story, Sofa So Good. In what will quite surely be the funniest book of the year, laugh along with Scarlett as she describes her journey from ballroom dancing diva, to adventures with her survivalist Dad, working at ASDA and life as a student. Along with the highs there have been tough times, including bullying during her teenage years. With her typical tenacity and trademark wit, Scarlett pulls through it all. The book is released on 19th October.
