

Danny Beard sashayed onto our screens and into our hearts on RuPaul's Drag Race UK, where they expressed themselves through their honesty, sharp lewks, and even sharper humour. Breaking records across all the Drag Race franchises over the world, they became the first ever bearded Queen to win the show!

Since being crowned, they have gone on to present and feature in a number of TV shows and podcasts, including 'The After Shave with Danny Beard' for BBC Three, wherein each episode saw Danny host in and out of drag, interviewing exiting queens and spilling the tea about what really went on in the 'werk' room. They have also featured as a panel guest on The Traitors: Uncloaked, Big Brother Late & Live as their Celebrity Houseguest, and more.

Danny hosts a weekly podcast 'The Gossip Gays' alongside their best friend Billy Andrew, where the two chat confessions, dirty dilemma's, and anything else camp, crazy, or coo-coo – offering their unique advice along the way. It currently has 600k global listens and counting!
